Alma Mater

Hail Alma Mater!
Hail to the school of our hearts
Through years of devotion
We never will part.
We'll carry on for dear old
Somerset;
Thy spirit will bring us the light.
With loyal hearts so true,
We pay our debt to you.
All hail to the Blue and the White!

Hail Alma Mater!
Hail to the Blue and the White!
Thy glorious tradition
Forever be bright.
We'll carry on the torch of victory
In praise of your name and the right.
Forever and a day,
To you we'll honor pay.
All hail to the Blue and the White!

Foreword

"I do not know beneath what sky,
Nor on what seas shall be thy fate;
I only know it shall be high,
I only know it shall be great."

—Richard Hovey

Our days here at Somerset High School are rapidly coming to an end. But, like this stream, we will journey on unceasingly through the river of life. Our journey will always be forward; our steps cannot be retraced. But we will leave Somerset High, our sheltering cove for six years, secure in the knowledge that we have been prepared to meet the demands of life and ready to make the most of opportunities which will fall in our paths.

Dedication: to Mr. Simpson

We, the Class of 1964, are proud to dedicate the twenty-seventh edition of our yearbook to you, Mr. Simpson, in deep appreciation of your many years of devotion to the students of Somerset High School.

As a teacher you have broadened our knowledge of mathematics, physics, and biology. As track and football coach, you have fostered among us a spirit of sportsmanship in addition to leading our teams to victory.

We wish to thank you for your sincere devotion to us in the past and wish you success and happiness in the future.

In Memoriam

ON THE DEATH
OF A PRESIDENT
By Harvey Alden

Were I to shed but one tear,
And you shed but one, too,
We shall have given our testament
To what this man could do.

And were this pool, river or lake
To flow deep through this earth,
Perhaps the thoughts, to which
he held,
Could be given their re-birth.

Then the ocean, like a tidal wave,
Could wash Man's tainted
roots,
Rinse clear his tarnished silver,
Shine his dirty boots.

It is time for us to think again,
Of history long since passed
Are we to waste our heritage,
To let this shot go past?

If each of us were to meditate
On all our fellow Man,
To refuse to waste away each
day,
To do all that we can.

Then he, our President,
Could rest from whence he came,
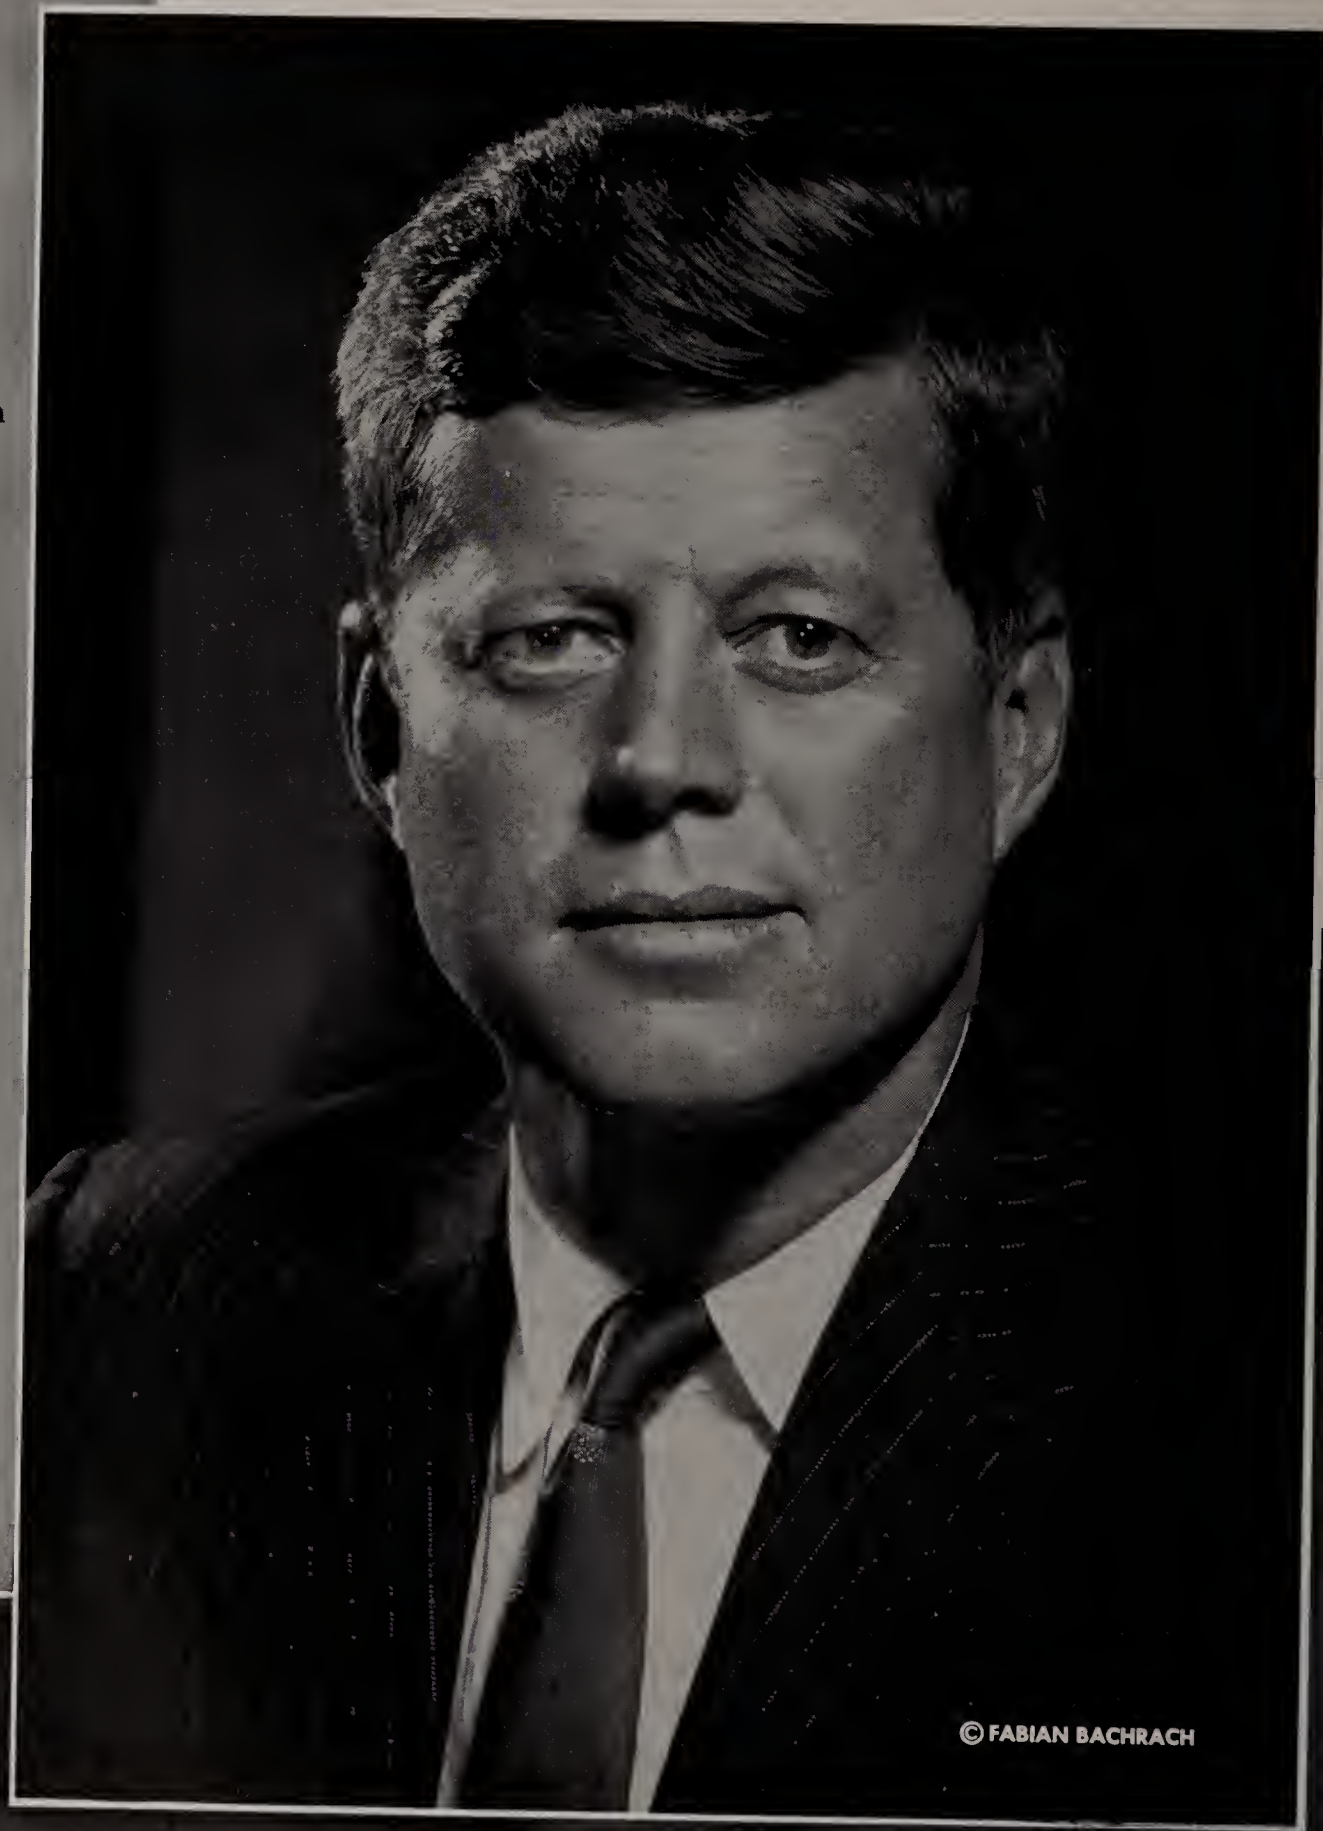
Knowing that the fatal bullet
Had not been suffered in vain.



John Fitzgerald Kennedy

President of the United States 1960–1963

Class

"Carpe Diem" has been the motto of Somerset High School for many years. Translated, it means "Seize the Opportunity." This is the key to success. Throughout our four short years at Somerset we have been "seizing the opportunity" to increase our knowledge and wisdom and to do our best to succeed in everything we have attempted, from making the Honor Roll to winning the Thanksgiving Day game. But, the message of this motto does not end with our final days in high school. Its wisdom should remain throughout our lives to guide us in all our undertakings.

Our freshman year was a difficult but challenging one. The transition from junior high to high school required a new maturity and responsibility. For our leaders we chose Alan Hadad, president; Patricia Perry, vice-president; Sherry Goff, secretary; and Antone DeMello, treasurer. Our football team, under the direction of Head Coach Sherm Kinney, strove for perfection, as did the basketball team which qualified for the Eastern Massachusetts Tech Tournament. The girls' softball team won the Bristol County Championship.

Guiding us in our sophomore year were Alan Hadad, president; Patricia Perry, vice-president; Eleanor Semenec, secretary; and Marilyn Lavoie, girl councillor; Thomas Davenport, treasurer; and John Fortuna, boy councillor. Directed by Head Coach Paul Bogan, our football team, while suffering defeat, was not lacking in its perseverance and determination to win. The basketball, track, and baseball teams experienced very successful seasons. The climax to weeks of diligent practice came to the girl athletes when the field hockey team won the championship and the basketball team tied with New Bedford High for first place.

Our junior year was an eventful one; we received our Balfour rings and started thinking seriously about a college education. Leaders of the class were James Goodwin, president; Sharon Santos, vice-president; Marilyn Lavoie, secretary; Alan Hadad, treasurer; Richard Smith, boy councillor; and Karen Flener, girl councillor. Alan Hadad was the recipient of the Harvard Book Award. Jane Thibault, Robert Gardella, and Richard Chung were chosen to represent Somerset at Girls' State and Boys' State.

History

"Hawaiian Aloha" was selected as the theme of the prom, the co-chairmen of which were Nancy Mullen and Diana Wisniewski. Miss Nowacki and Mr. White, junior class advisors, guided us in our preparations for the gala affair. Our Blue Raiders, with James Sullivan as Head Coach, seized the opportunity for victory and defeated Case in a crushing 24-7 win on Thanksgiving Day. Once again, the girls' field hockey team won the Bristol County Championship and the basketball team tied with New Bedford High.

By far the most exciting, challenging, and difficult year of all was our senior year. To lead us we elected James Goodwin, president; Sharon Santos, vice-president; Thomas Davenport, treasurer; Marilyn Lavoie, girl councillor; Karen Flener, secretary; and Russell Paul, boy councillor. The football team did very well, as did all other girls' and boys' athletic teams.

The most important events included the exchanging of class pictures, the headaches and joys of college applications and acceptances, and the eager anticipation of our prom, banquet, and finally—graduation.

Recalling the days spent at Somerset High, we realize that we owe a great deal to our school and its teachers who have done so much to guide us along the path of success. We realize that we have an obligation to pay back this debt by seizing every opportunity that arises to better ourselves, our community, and our country.

Class Will

I, Vivianne Levesque, leave all my blushes to anyone who can turn six shades of red in one second.

I, Donna Feno, leave my viola to anyone interested in playing it.

I, Carol Correia, leave my mischievous ways to any refined underclassman.

I, Elizabeth Almedia, leave Miss Worton her tailor's chalk.

I, Richard Menker, leave my locker to the next person who has to dodge Mr. Ward.

I, Pauline Fortin, leave with no delay.

I, Richard Wawrow, leave to Somerset High all the troubles I went through to get out of here.

I, Frank Benevides, leave my crutches to my English teacher.

I, Robert Williamson, leave to some unfortunate junior the sudden awakening his senior year will give him.

I, Jean Souza, leave my seat in the band to any future sax player who wants to get hit with a trombone slide.

I, Allan Trepanier, leave the squeaky desks to a Junior with an oil can.

I, Sharon Souza, leave Mr. White's Art Room in complete disorder.

I, James Lynch, leave . . . I hope!

We, Jane Thibault and Madeleine Lavoie, being of sound? mind and shattered nerves, leave the fascinating and stimulating job of editing the yearbook to next year's unsuspecting editors.

We, Pat Perry, Sharon Santos, and Sandra Maia, leave in different directions for the first time in our lives.

I, Antone Henriques, leave Mr. Pontes with his literature tests.

I, Paul Beaulieu, leave Thomas Giacobbe 13,000 late slips and 3 excuses.

I, Elaine Perry, leave sadly!

I, James Neher, leave Somerset High broken hearted???

I, Colleen Leonard, leave my two sisters to further confuse the teachers.

We, Leo Ouellette and Paul Gagne, leave Mr. Matte with the shop projects we started at the beginning of the year.

I, Robert Perry, leave my blood stains in shop to any underclassman who doesn't believe Mr. Matte.

I, Cynthia Medeiros, leave Mr. Driscoll with all the typing to do.

I, John Halpin, leave Mr. Matte with shattered nerves.

I, Robert Mercier, being of sound mind and body, leave Somerset High School with the regret and sorrow I came here six long, hard years ago today.

We, Robert Marchand and Benny Wright, leave Mr. Donahue happy.

I, Karen Verros, leave to my sister, Diane, the title of "Golden Greek."

I, Jim Goodwin, leave my No. 13 baseball and basketball uniforms to anyone willing to defy superstition.

I, Robert Cook, leave my brother-in-law.

I, Alan Hadad, leave my camera to Mr. Driscoll so that he may have the privilege of taking pictures for the Breeze.

I, Bill Murphy, would like to leave my chair as President of the student Council to anyone who doesn't mind reading Robert's Rules of Order and Parliamentary Procedure at a Glance.

I, Carolyn Quinn, leave my job of piano moving to the next Mixed Chorus accompanist.

I, Nancy Rapoza, leave Miss Corcoran a new box of salt for the benefit of Juniors who like to eat apples with salt.

I, Suzanne Trudeau, leave the rex-o-graph machine and marking pencil as an F.T.A. Student Teacher to any Junior girl whose goal is teaching.

I, Susan Oliveria, leave all my worries about selling pins and bracelets to anyone in the Junior class who will take them.

I, Jeannine Lincourt, leave the bandages from my fingers to next year's basketball player.

We, Carolyn Hill and Florence Roderiques, leave our notes behind for anyone who wants to read them.

I, Jane Thibault, leave all of my six rabbit cages to next year's bio-crazy senior.

We, Carol Sonion and Diana Wisniewski leave our broken lab equipment to Mr. Petrillo.

I, George Brough, leave "MacBeth" to whoever wants the poor guy.

I, Sharon Dacey, leave my new white uniform to next year's head cheerleader and wish her as much fun and excitement as I've had. Right, Ellie?

I, Myles Gatterman, leave my ludicrous laugh hoping that it will echo throughout the classrooms of Somerset High for many years to come and leave a small portion of the joy I have experienced to my underclassmen.

I, Barbara Hoffman, am leaving Mr. James Sullivan to any student who needs friendship or guidance.

I, William Clifton, will leave if the teachers will let me.

I, Donna Vickrey, don't leave anything because I'm taking it all with me.

I, Ellie Semenec, leave my white cheering uniform to the lucky Junior girl who will be head cheerleader next year.

I, Andy Gateriewictz, leave by popular demand.

I, Eugene Lavoie, leave my Trig Book for any future Senior who can figure it out.

I, Michael Nogueira, leave my brain to Mr. Leary to do with as he sees fit!

We, Donna Robinson and Gloria Violette, gladly leave the attendance of the Mixed Chorus and Girls' Glee to the future vice-president.

I, Ronald Goldsmith, leave Mr. Beals frustrated.

I, Ronald Ledoux, leave Mr. Smietana slightly shaken.

We, Paul Johnston and Roger Hentershee, are just going to leave as we have many times before.

We, Madeleine and Marilyn Lavoie, leave the confusion over our names.

We, Gerry, Omer, and Kaiser, Tri-Captains of the football team, leave respect and admiration to Mr. Sullivan, our Coach.

I, Diane Chagnon, bequeath my locker to anyone who can open it without hitting the hot radiator.

I, Andrew Forbes, leave Miss Sullivan one new, unused French book.

I, Donna Michael, leave the 1963 file cabinet in the Music Room to next year's librarian if he can figure it out.

I, Richard Chung, leave to my fortunate underclassmen my footsteps so that they will know where not to step.

I, Judy McNamara, leave my mother and brother.

We, Betsy, Donna, Mad, Mal, Nancy, and Pat, leave our apple cider on Mr. Simpson's table cloth.

I, Robert Cichon, regretfully leave room 202 after two happy years.

I, Barry McGee . . . Who's leaving???!!

We, the Senior Class of 1964, leave to the faculty of Somerset High School our respect and appreciation and to next year's seniors, the many pleasures and worries which accompany the senior year.

Sincerely,

Seniors '64

Football

Victorious season brought about by hard work, good sportsmanship, and cooperation.

After winning their last five games and compiling an over-all record of seven wins and two losses, Coach Jim Sullivan's Blue Raiders clinched a piece of the crown of the well-balanced Tri-County League. They finished in a four way tie for first place with Wareham, Falmouth, and Case. This marked a great comeback for this Somerset team which had been just about counted out of the race with a record of two wins and two losses for the first four games.

A great deal of the credit, of course, goes to the coach and his staff for the fine job they did. But the efforts of the players themselves can hardly be overlooked. They were led by Tri-Captains Dick Shahdan, Gerry Nordeste, and Omer Rousseau; also, Bob Gardella and John Ganem, all of whom were All-Tri-County League selections. Other outstanding performers were Bruce Cranshaw, Jim Neher, Ward Barlow, Dennis King, and Dave Johnson.

The remaining senior members of the 1963 football squad were: Barry McGee, Gene Lavoie, Charlie Karpowich, John Fortuna, Jim Heron, Dick Menker, Ron Goldsmith, Dick Tolin, Paul Daghir, Ron Reiser, Dave Kielty, Howie Silvia, and Rick Sisson. Some underclassmen who showed great desire and spirit were Joe Silva, Dave Smith, Lionel Rousseau, and Tom Paine.

Somerset Senior Citizens

The Jubilant Sophomores!

The Traditional Case Rally

is held annually with good-natured competition between the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. Each class strives to make its decorations and its skit the most imaginative and interesting. This rally arouses much student interest in the Thanksgiving Day game with Case, our strong rivals. To the dismay of the seniors, the sophomores were the proud winners this year. But, all classes did a splendid job on their particular skit, and the judges honestly announced that the best all around performance was given by the sophomores.

The S.H.S. Blue Raiders had another successful season in '63-'64. Led by their co-captains Jim Goodwin, Andy Gateriewictz, and Jerry Nordeste, and spurred by coach Tom Burns, the squad compiled a good record and winning percentage. The burden of leading the team in playing good basketball and in winning was placed on the following senior members of the squad: Bill Bogle, Bruce Cranshaw, Tom Davenport, Tony De Mello, Jim Dorsey, Dick Ferris, Andy Gateriewictz, Jim Goodwin, and Jerry Nordeste.

COACH SULLIVAN

Baseball

After a second place finish on the eight team Narry League last year, Coach Jim Sullivan's Blue Raiders may prove to be the best baseball squad ever to come from Somerset High. The team features depth, power, and the desire needed to be champions. Most of the players have two or more years of varsity experience and a large nucleus of seniors heads the group.

The squad is led by five All Narry performers. Pitcher Jim Goodwin, who tossed two "no-hitters" last year, will be the mainstay of the mound staff. Outfielder and league leading hitter Barry McGee and catcher Bruce Cranshaw will give a great deal of hitting power to the club. Andy Gateriewictz and Gene Lavoie, standouts in the airtight infield, also greatly brighten the picture.

The remaining senior members of the team are: catcher Charlie Karpowich; pitchers, Tony De Mello and Ward Barlow; infielders, Dick Ferris and Bill Simons; and outfielders, Johnny Fortuna, Gerry Nordeste, Tony Henriques and Jim Neher. Win or lose, this year's Blue Raiders possess good sportsmanship and a spirit of fair play and will make their school proud of them.
